Doug Koenig Law presents a panel of experts ...

DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS ON AGING AND STAYING AT HOME

August 3, 2016 – 1:30pm to 3:45pm

Durham Center for Senior Life - Auditorium
406 Rigsbee Ave, Durham, NC

How can my mom age at home? What if she can't drive? Or care for herself?

If you ask these questions about your parents, you know that this is going to be a hard discussion! No one wants to give up the keys, or have a caregiver… that is a loss of independence and the family can be in total chaos while answers come. What can you do?

How can I keep my kids from making me go to a home? If you are a parent asking this question yourself, you are in for a difficult conversation too! What can you do?

Join these experts as we show you that there are options for holding the conversation and getting good answers!

Nancy Ruffner – Helping you plan for aging-in-place

Briant Sikorski – Helping you afford the cost of care

Valerie Jurik – Making your home a safer place to age-in-place

Ken Helmuth – Providing assistance and Home Care as you need it

Doug Koenig – Helping you chart a course and resolve legal issues

Law Offices of Douglas E. Koenig -- 6208 Fayetteville Rd, Suite 104, Durham, NC 27713
Phone: 919-883-2800 Web: www.doug koeniglaw.com Twitter: @dougkoeniglaw